

Criteria: 1	Curricular Aspects
Key Indicator: 1.3	Curriculum Enrichment
Metric No: 1.3.1	Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Response:

1. Professional Ethics: The institute is dedicated to teaching professional ethics in addition to academics to the students. Subjects such as research methodology provide standards for the appropriate conduct of research using statistics with high ethical standards. Pharmaceutical Jurisprudence course includes legal aspects about prohibition of the sale of contaminated, spurious, and misbranded pharmaceuticals, which instills ethical values in the manufacturing, distribution, and sale of pharmaceuticals and cosmetics. Quality assurance is another course that adheres to ethical standards in earning and preserving the trust of society. Moral obligations and virtues guide communication ethics with patients, health professionals, and society through Communication skills course which is an integral part of curriculum. Pharmaceutical product development and Pharmaceutical Regulatory Affairs deal with regulatory requirements and pharmacists' professional obligations with proper respect for society's well-being.

Additional sessions such as Perspective of Quality Control and Quality Assurance in Pharma Industry, and Employability Skill Development assist students in gaining professional ethical knowledge.

2. Gender: Gender equality gives equal opportunity to achieve human rights and contribute to and benefit from economic, social, and cultural growth. Institute promotes gender equality in the classroom by using gender-neutral language during teaching, interactive sessions with all students and group discussions by making groups of boys and girls. We organize various activities to promote gender equality, women's empowerment, and gender sensitization.

We celebrate International Women's Day by organizing guest lectures, seminars, or workshops to create awareness about gender equity. Gender equality taught equal rights, opportunities, and responsibilities of all genders to shape their own lives and contribute to the development of society. We also encourage participation of group students for practical's, seminars, conferences, poster presentations, and research activities.

3. Human Values: For effective outcome-based education, content beyond the syllabus is integrated into a curriculum that maps program outcomes like pharmacists and society and sustains human values. We are organizing various guest sessions for the students to understand their responsibilities as pharmacists towards the development of society as well as guest talks to demonstrate the significance of the pharmacy profession in the healthcare system. Subjects like Communication skills and Pharmacy Practice also taught human values. Awareness campaigns are also conducted for schoolgirls from the villages about hygiene, use of sanitary pads and health issues.

4. Environment and Sustainability: Environment and Sustainability is one of the program outcomes defined by NBA. To create awareness in students about environmental sustainability, we organize various seminars or lectures on water conservation, adopting green & sustainable practices in pharmaceutical chemistry, use of polymers for renewable resources. The institution also strongly supports tree planting and the use of solar lamps as energy sources on the college campus. To save on paperwork, the institute also supports the use of online platforms for academic records. The green chemistry projects, recycling of water by using pump in condensation process, and recovery as well as reuse of organic solvents in research also help to conserve the ecosystem.

Report: Hemoglobin Checkup & Anemia Detection Camp

Date: 13th August 2019

ADCBP Ashta conducted a Hemoglobin checkup & Anemia detection camp at Mirajwadi under NSS program on 13th August 2019 near about 45 patients attended this camp. Anemia is a wide spreading condition in our society due to various reasons like nutritional deficiency, socio-economic and demographic factors.

The recent survey have shown that in India approx 50% girls are suffering from this condition whereas the ratio of the anemia suffering in boys falls around 30%. "One way to prevent iron deficiency anemia is to increase iron intake through diet. You can get iron from a variety of foods especially leafy green vegetables.

Community services have always been an integral part of ADCBP Ashta and keeping this thought in mind, a successful Tetanus Vaccination camp was organised on February 30 under NSS Regular Activity 2019. This activity was made successful with the unstinted support of the Dr. R. B. Jadhav, Principal, Annasaheb Dange College of Pharmacy, Ashta, presided by Mr. Bipin Khot, Sarpanch, Mirajwadi, Mrs. Chaya Man Deputy Sarpanch, Mirajwadi.

The camp was conducted under the guidance of Dr. R. B. Jadhav, Principal, Annasaheb Dange College of Pharmacy, Ashta, presided by Mr. Bipin Khot, Sarpanch, Mirajwadi, Mrs. Chaya Man Deputy Sarpanch, Mirajwadi, Mr. Sachin Sajane, Vice Principal, Admin ADCBP, Mr. Rajesh Jagtap, Vice Principal, Academic ADCBP.

The chief reason of anemia among girls is to skip proper diet for reducing body weight amongst others. Prof. Mullani, Prof Sutar & Prof Nargati and our pharmacy students counseled the patients for their health & intellect perspectives with nutrition and life style and gave them certain tips to prevent anemia." Principal of College & Executive Director motivated our students to conduct such camps for the benefits of society. Prof. Mullani (Head NSS) and students successfully coordinated the Hemoglobin checkup & Anemia detection camp.
